FIRE & WINE TOUR 2014

"I think they're brilliant."

-Mike Harding

"Their individual and combined singing voices prove both interesting and persuasive."

"Hot off the heels of their New England tour this summer, Hannah Sanders (The Dunns) of Old England, and Liz Simmons (The John Whelan Band, Annalivia, Long Time Courting) head out for their "Fire & Wine" tour of England during the month of November. Hannah and Liz's music draws from English musical traditions as well as American Old Time, blues and contemporary folk. Even though these gals grew up with an ocean between them, they had similar childhoods spent traveling with musician parents, and were exposed to many different styles of music, among them traditional folk and rock and roll. A transatlantic pairing of two seasoned performers who stay busy with other projects but just love it when they get to tour together, Hannah and Liz have impressed audiences with their haunting vocal blend, their guitar chops, and their witty stage banter. They have toured in the northeastern US and England, opening for Karan Casey and John Doyle and The Wiyos, and have shared shows with Laura Cortese, Kyle Carey and others in addition to headlining their own shows.

'World Begun' is a collection of traditional and original folk songs performed and arranged by Hannah and Liz on vocals, guitar, and dulcimer, with guest musician Flynn Cohen on Waldezither on track 1. The EP features two original songs penned by each of the singers, a cover of the Steve Ashley song Fire and Wine, and two traditional English songs, all punctuated with Hannah and Liz's inventive harmonic and rhythmic sensibilities.
